The conference panels will deal with issues such as: cross border M&A's new directions; where to invest in Europe; Israeli technologies as a booster to traditional European industries; how to structure medtech investments for success; how must emerging biotechs adapt to the European ecosystem; complementary essentials in renewable & non-renewable energy; European real-estate opportunities and the image of Israel in Europe. The Go4Russia panel will be dedicated to strengthening the Russia-Israel business ties especially in light of Russia's rising status in the international arena.

A special panel of Elevator Pitches will include 12 selected innovative technology companies which will be given the opportunity to briefly introduce their products to potential investors.

The GO4European achievement Prize will go to Mr. Dan Propper Chairman of OSEM Group. The Prize honors his contribution to strengthening the business relationship between Israel and Europe.

Edouard Cukierman Chairman of Cukierman & Co. Investment House and Managing Partner of Catalyst Funds: "The recent significant political and financial changes both in Europe and in Israel created new exciting business opportunities between Europe and Israel. Israel's newly discovered gas reserves and the rapid expansion of the energy sector will no doubt have an impact on the Israeli-European relationship in the years to come. For the first time this year we will have a dedicated energy expert panel at the Go4Europe conference in addition to panels on innovative technology and life sciences.

"Another important development is Russia's increasing influence in the region and in Europe. At our Go4Russia panel we emphasize Russia's importance to which we invite key leaders of the business community who will elaborate on the potential growth opportunities between the two countries."
