Greg Wolf appointed Chief Executive Officer of Cukierman & Co. Investment House

Press Release June 26, 2023

Tel Aviv, Israel, June 26, 2023 – Cukierman & Co. Investment House, the largest corporate finance team in Israel serving Israeli and international technology companies, announces that Greg Wolf has been named Chief Executive Officer of the company. Cukierman & Co. is a leader in Israel in the field of cross-border fundraising for startups, with a strong network of investors and financial institutions around the world.

Greg Wolf brings more than 23 years of experience as an investment banker, advising on M&A, IPOs and private placements of companies across the technology, media and telecom sectors. Wolf began his investment banking career in New York, serving as an officer in both Goldman Sachs and Morgan Stanley's investment banking divisions, and has been advising numerous Israeli companies for the past 14 years. Over the course of his career, Wolf has advised on over $35 Billion of transactions. He holds an MBA from the University of Chicago and a BS in Aerospace Engineering from the University of Virginia.

"Greg has extensive professional experience of international finance as well as his entrepreneurial spirit and a track record of revenue generation," says Edouard Cukierman, Chairman of Cukierman & Co. Investment House. "I'm sure that our international and Israeli customers will benefit from his deep understanding of the cross-border M&A process, and his broad international network."

Wolf added: "I'm excited to join the team with the goal of further expanding our client base to international markets and expanding our M&A business advising both buyers and sellers," he continued, "Finance is, by nature, a global business, and by growing our client relationships internationally, we will grow our business in Israel as well. In this challenging funding environment, more companies will find it necessary to seek international strategic partners to help them scale. Our multi-national team, both in Israel and our overseas offices, is best positioned to help our clients find such strategic partners, either for investment or acquisition."

Greg Wolf will assume responsibilities of all management aspects of Cukierman & Co. Investment House, including operations and business development opportunities, strategic aspects, as well as executing investment banking transactions from sourcing to closing.
